The Arizona Department of Economic Security (DES) Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) Refugee Program provides services that cater to the cultures and languages of refugees, enabling them to fulfill their needs and flourish in the community.

DES Cultural Navigators provide in-person and remote support to complement the resources provided by existing programs and address the unmet needs of families.

Services available through the TANF Refugee Program include:

- On-site Language Interpreter
- Employment Training
- English Language Instruction
- Case Management and Support
- Community Liaisons and Navigators
- Customized Employment Plan and Resume Assistance
